Safeguarding Children & Vulnerable People:

<https://wagga.catholic.org.au/safeguarding-children-vulnerable-people/>

Priest: In the silence of this night / day we celebrate the tiny hope of birth in Jesus, our Christ. As we wonder what this birth means to us, we recall all that we have found on the way to Bethlehem.

We remember the candles of hope, peace, love and joy we have shared in the sacred story. These lights shine brightly as the story of Christmas begins.

Each of the Advent Candles are now lit:

The Light of Hope (candle is lit)

The light of Peace (candle is lit)

The light of Love..... (candle is lit)

The light of Joy (candle is lit)

Now, as the shepherds worship and the cattle low we sing with the angels that God has come into the world. We join in that song, praying; 'Glory to God in the highest heaven and on earth peace among those whom God favours!'

Christ candle is lit

ALL: We light the Christ candle to celebrate and thank you for sending the Christ Child to be Emmanuel, God among us. We join the chorus of angels with our glad tidings and great joy. God has been made real, God has come close. Holy God we rejoice in your presence and pray for wonder and delight. We live in HOPE, we pray for PEACE, we share your LOVE as we are filled with JOY. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Christmas Prayer

Whenever we gaze into a crib this Christmas season

may new hope and joy flood our spirit.

Whenever we watch babies and young children playing may a new energy delight our hearts.

Whenever we are tantalised by the aroma of a BBQ may we unwind, relax and enjoy time off.

Whenever the crush of family and friends overwhelms us

may the hospitality of our hearts expand.

Whenever we provide a meal or bed over the holidays

may we experience love and appreciation.

Whenever we spy our reflections in the mirror or pool

may we find ourselves to be images of God.

Whenever we put our feet up for leisure may the humble presence of the Incarnate One companion us.

Whenever we feel our distance from each other around the world may the Christ child draw us into unity. Amen.

Thought for the Week (Pope Francis):

Christmas is joy, religious joy, an inner joy of light and peace.

Parish News

We welcome you to our Christmas celebrations. Christmas provides us with a unique opportunity to contemplate the mystery of God's love. That love finds its manifestation in us, our families and in our celebrating community. Christmas reminds us of the need to care for those who live on the margins of society - those who need to discover not our judgement, but God's mercy and hope.

May this Christmas lead you to discover and share the peace and happiness which only God can give and which is reflected by our journey of faith.

Thanks to all of you for continuing to live and share your faith within our Sacred Heart Parish community. A special mention needs to be made for those who walk that extra mile so that we might continue to proclaim Christ's presence in our midst with sure and certain hope. Your efforts are much appreciated and valued.

Christmas Collection

One collection will take place at all masses on Christmas Eve/Christmas Day at the conclusion of the Prayers of the Faithful. For those wishing to donate electronically our 'tap and go' device is located at the car park entrance of the church and at Xavier outside the main entrance door.

Your generous contribution helps sustain the life and pastoral outreach of our parish community.

Parish Christmas Day Lunch

At the time of printing we have 60 people who have indicated their intention to participate in Christmas Lunch in our Parish Hall on the 25 December from 12 noon. Thanks to all those who have volunteered to provide food, monetary donations and the gift of their time and energy in setting up for and helping in the kitchen on the day.

St Clare's Conference Christmas Appeal

Thanks to your generosity an abundance of food and gifts have been donated to provide hampers for Christmas. Cash donations will be used locally.

A Christmas Prayer

God of many happy returns, thank you for finding a home among us,
For drawing us all to the side of your manger where we share your arrival
With smelly creatures and simple shepherds.
Christmas is a busy time, often burdened with crazy expectations.
There is no such thing as a perfect family.
Emotions can be raw.
Give us a few quiet moments today to light a candle for you and place it on that modest cake we have made with our lives, where you bring light.
On we that live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone. Amen
(From Michael McGirr 'Doorways into Hope & Joy')

INTRODUCTORY PRAYER

Dear friends, as we gather to celebrate the festival of Christmas let us prepare ourselves so that we may understand its deeper meaning. Let us hear, in words and music of God's good purposes and the sharing of hope in times of trouble.

In these challenging times when nations and peoples are divided and families disconnected, let us rejoice in the words and music that remind us that God is with us and we are not alone. As we recall the themes of Christmas we affirm God's good intention for all people and his unconditional love for all creation.

But first, let us pray for the world which God so loves, for our faith communities that together we may show forth the light of the love of God for all people.

And we pray especially for the homeless, the hungry, and the oppressed; for those sick in body or in mind; for those who mourn the loss of loved ones; for the lonely and the unloved; for prisoners and refugees; the broken and injured and for all who are away from home and loved ones at this time.

We remember and give thanks for those who have gone before us in hope and faith, recognizing that we are one with them in this celebration of God's gift to the world at Bethlehem and rediscovered in the simplicity and wonder of human life and love.

Fr Kevin Flanagan – Anniversary of His Death

The seventh Anniversary of the death of Fr Kevin Flanagan, parish priest of Sacred Heart for over 40 years occurred last Saturday on the 21 December. We continue to remember and give thanks for Kevin's gift of shared faith, friendship and pastoral leadership.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: From the prophet Isaiah 9:1-7

The people that walked in darkness has seen a great light; on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone. You have made their gladness greater, you have made their joy increase; they rejoice in your presence as all rejoice at harvest time as all are happy when they are dividing the spoils. For the yoke that was weighing on him, the bar across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian. For all the footgear of battle, every cloak rolled in blood, is burnt and consumed by fire. For there is a child born for us, a son given to us and dominion is laid on his shoulders; and this is the name they give him: Wonder-Counsellor, Mighty God, Eternal-Father, Prince of Peace. Wide is his dominion in a peace that has no end, for the throne of David and for his royal power, which he establishes and makes secure in justice and integrity.

From this time onwards and for ever, the jealous love of the Lord of hosts will do this.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 95

(When the Psalm is sung, the words will vary slightly but the meaning remains the same.)

Response: Today is born our Saviour, Christ the Lord.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.

O sing to the Lord, bless his name. R

Proclaim his help day by day,
tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples. R

Let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad,
let the sea and all within it thunder praise,
let the land and all it bears rejoice,
all the tree of the wood shout for joy
at the presence of the Lord for he comes he comes to rule the earth R

With justice he will rule the world,
he will judge the peoples with his truth. R

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Titus 2:11-14

God's grace has been revealed and it has made salvation possible for the whole human race and taught us that what we have to do is to give up everything that does not lead to God and all our worldly ambitions; we must be self-restrained and live good and religious lives here in this present world, while we are waiting in hope for the blessing which will come with the appearing of the glory of our great God and saviour Christ Jesus. He sacrificed himself for us in order to set us free from all wickedness and to purify a people so that it could be his very own and would have no ambition except to do good.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Good News and great joy to all the world:
today is born our Saviour, Christ the Lord.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 2:1-14

Caesar Augustus issued a decree for a census of the whole world to be taken. This census – the first-took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria and everyone went to his own town to be registered. So Joseph set out from the town of Nazareth in Galilee and travelled up to Judea to the town of David called Bethlehem since he was of David's House and line, in order to be registered together with Mary his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there the time came for her to have her child and she gave birth to a son, her first-born. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them at the inn. In the countryside close by there were shepherds who lived in the fields and took it in turns to watch their flocks during the night. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone round them. They were terrified, but the angel said, 'Do not be afraid. Listen, I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by the whole people. Today in the town of David, a saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. And here is a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.' And suddenly with the angel there was great throng of the heavenly host, praising God and singing:

"Glory to God in the highest heaven and peace to all who enjoy God's favour". The Gospel of the Lord
