CHILDRENS LITURGY:

Children's liturgy is offered in Sacred Heart parish community each second and fourth Sunday at 9.30am mass during school terms.

This Sunday, after all the events and celebrations of Passiontide and Easter, we come to ponder the great mystery of the Most Holy Trinity, which binds them all together.

In the First Reading, Moses goes up Mount Sinai to plead for his sinful people. He enters the cloud of the Lord's presence and discovers a God of tenderness, compassion and forgiveness.

The Cantic that follows comes from the Book of Daniel, and is a song of praise to bless and glorify God in the heavens and in creation. St Paul closes his letter to the Corinthians (Second Reading) with a blessing of the three Persons, one God.

The Gospel is part of Jesus's conversation with Nicodemus. It clearly states that the Father gave his Son Jesus, with infinite love, to bring eternal life.

May we strive to live this week in the fellowship of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, spreading God's love and peace.

Thought for the week Pope Leo XIV

“The Trinity teaches us that one can never be without the other. We are not islands; we are in the world to live in God's image: open, in need of others and in need of helping others.”

Reconciliation Prayer

God of justice and truth.

During National Reconciliation Week, we remember the strength of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples who have carried the burden of past policies, particularly those impacted by forced removals.

We honour the voices of the Stolen Generations, their courage, their stories, and their ongoing journey of healing. We ask for your forgiveness and guidance as we strive to heal the wounds of the past and build a future where all people are treated with dignity and respect.

We pray for a nation where justice and equity prevail for all Australians.

May Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities be empowered to thrive, and may the disparities in achievement be overcome through collective commitment and action.

May we continue to walk together, not just in words, but in meaningful change. Amen.

PARISH COMMITMENT:

AS THE PARISHIONERS OF SACRED HEART WE COMMIT OURSELVES TO SUPPORT THESE CANDIDATES BY CONTINUING TO BE BEARERS OF THE FRUITS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT—LOVE, JOY, PEACE, PATIENCE, KINDNESS, GENEROSITY, FAITHFULNESS, GENTLENESS, SELF CONTROL IN OUR LIVES.

AMEN

Parish News

TO PONDER:

We begin our transition into Ordinary Time by meditating on the Trinity, the mystery awaiting us on the other side of Lent and Easter. This great mystery—the divine reality of three-in-one—lies beyond the shore of reason. According to Augustine, if we think we understand it, then what we understand is not God. Yet our readings are carefully chosen to reveal aspects of this mystery to us. The Trinity is the powerful God coming in a cloud to form a covenant with Israel. It is the gift of divinity embodied in Jesus Christ, who comes to embrace the world. And it is the Spirit permeating all things.

Give yourself time this week to contemplate the Trinity, to rest in its mystery, and to open your heart to awe and wonder.

National Reconciliation Week 27 May—3 June

May we each take a moment to reflect on the Country we're on and the spirits, stories, and strength that continues to live in these lands. 26th of May marks National Sorry Day, also known as the Journey of Healing, a time to honour Stolen Generations and reflect on the deep and ongoing impacts of past government policies that removed children from their families, cultures, and communities.

Immediately after this is National Reconciliation Week, which begins on Wednesday 27th of May. This important week first began in 1993 as a Week of Prayer for Reconciliation, supported by Australia's major faith groups. This year's theme "All In" reminds us that reconciliation is not a spectator sport and requires everyone to step away from the sidelines.

Moving beyond conversations and symbolic actions is vital to creating unified, meaningful change.

This week is framed by two significant dates. May 27th marks the anniversary of the 1967 Referendum, when over 90% of Australians voted to give the Commonwealth power to make laws for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and to include them in the census, a moment of profound national recognition. June 3rd is Mabo Day, which commemorates the landmark High Court decision that overturned the myth of terra nullius and recognises Native Title rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. This legal milestone affirmed what First Nations peoples have always known, that this land was never empty, and our deep, enduring connection to Country is real and rightful.

Let us pray for forgiveness, courage, and a future where all people are treated with dignity and respect.

May we continue to build bridges from past to future, guided by truth, prayer, commitment, and meaningful action.

Your new roster in hard copy form is now available on Swan Street entrance side of Church.

Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the book of Exodus 34:4—6, 8—9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord, let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins and adopt us as your heritage.' The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

(When the Psalm is sung, the words will vary slightly but the meaning remains the same.)

Response: Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers

R: Glory and Praise for ever

Blest your glorious holy name.

R: Glory and Praise for ever

You are blest in the temple of your glory

R: Glory and Praise for ever

You are blest on the throne of your kingdom

R: Glory and Praise for ever

You are blest who gaze into the depths

R: Glory and Praise for ever

You are blest in the firmament of heaven

R: Glory and Praise for ever

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 13:11—13

Brothers and sisters, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all..

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory be to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was and who is to come..

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 3:16—18

Jesus said to Nicodemus, 'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life.

For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved.

No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
